Who we are

A parent-led Christian Home School group and co-op that offers support and fellowship to Christian home educators serving Leavenworth, Fort Leavenworth, Lansing and the surrounding area. We are a cluster group of Midwest Parent Educators based in Kansas City.

LINK was created to bring together Christian Homeschooling families for the purpose of encouraging one another, befriending one another and working together co-operatively to provide enriching activities to our children's education. The official co-op meetings are intended to provide fun & engaging classes for children of all ages up to 18. We also include a Recess/Break Time.

While different Parents may volunteer to teach subjects that are considered "core" (i.e. Math, Science, etc.) we do not purpose to offer direct instruction in the core areas. Our purpose is to allow children to explore areas of extracurricular interest and enjoy interacting with one another while engaged in fun activities
